

Used to

Past Habits and States

I used to... / I didn't use to... / Did you use to...?

1 Grammar Explanation

We use used to to talk about things we did regularly in the past or situations that were true in the past but are not true now.

Affirmative (Olumlu)

Subject + used to + verb (base form)

- I used to play football.
- She used to live in Izmir.
- They used to go to school by bus.

Negative (Olumsuz)

Subject + didn't use to + verb (base form)

- I didn't use to like vegetables.
- She didn't use to get up early.
- They didn't use to have a computer.

Question (Soru)

Did + subject + use to + verb (base form)?

- Did you use to play the piano?
- Did he use to live in a big city?
- Did they use to have a pet?

Time Expressions (Zaman ifadeleri)

yesterday – when I was a child – in the past – when I was younger – before

Remember!

- used to is always followed by the base form of the verb.
- We usually use it for habits and states, not for finished actions.
- It is the same for all subjects.
