Positive & Negative Choices

Instructions: Complete each exercise using the correct structure for positive or negative choices.

Positive Choices (Either/Or): Use either/or to present two alternatives where one can be chosen. This structure accepts one option or the other.

Example: You can select either the webcam or the mouse mat.

Negative Choices (Neither/Nor): Use neither/nor to reject both alternatives. This structure shows that both options are not acceptable or not true.

Example: Neither the preparation nor the brainstorming boosts maximum creativity without teamwork.

Part A: Identify the Structure

Read each sentence and write whether it shows a positive choice or a negative choice.

1. Either the library or the computer lab will be available after school.

2. Neither the rain nor the cold weather stopped the soccer game.

3. You can choose either the science project or the art assignment for extra credit.

Part B: Complete the Sentences
